The size of the Civil Service has fluctuated over the last 13 years in response to changes in demand for service, public policy and the transformation of Departments into Statutory Authorities. The graph above provides a snap-shot of the size of the Civil Service in quarterly increments from September 2008 until June 2013, and annually for the preceding 8 years.

In January 2001 the Civil Service consisted of 4034 employees. The creation of the Health Services Authority in July 2002, contributed to the service contracting to its lowest level of 3097, in July 2003. The Civil Service changed in nature with the creation of additional Statutory Authorities including the National Roads and Airports Authorities in 2004 and the Maritime Authority of the Cayman Islands in 2005. Between 2003 and 2008 the service grew in size by over 700 employees.

The 2008/09 fiscal year saw an overall decrease in numbers, particularly since October 2008 when Government implemented a restriction on recruitment activities. Considering the end of the last 5 financial years, there has been a steady decrease in the size of the Civil Service through natural attrition, other than from the financial year ending in 2012. There were 38 fewer Civil Servants employed at the end of financial year 2012/13 than at the end of 2011/12. Other than a slight decrease in December 2008, Caymanians have consistently represented over 70% of the Civil Service during the last 8 years. As at 30th June 2013, Caymanians represented 72.6% of the Service.

The two bar charts above show the proportion of salary grades held by female and male Civil Servants, as at the 30th June 2013. The solid lines show the percentage expected if the grades were uniformly distributed. Employees within the Civil Service continued to be relatively evenly distributed by gender, with the workforce comprising 53% female and 47% male.

The table above shows that for salaried staff (grades A-R), all senior executive roles within the service (falling within grades A & B) were male. Positions within grades A and B include the Deputy Governor, the Financial Secretary, the Attorney General, the Chief Justice and Puisine Judges.

For other organisation executives (predominantly falling within grades C to G), the gender balance showed 48% of roles held by men and 52% held by women. Positions within grades C to G included Chief/Deputy Chief Officers and Heads/Deputy Heads of Departments.

Within the middle/junior management and specialist technical roles (predominantly found in grades H to K), the gender split was the same as the service as a whole - 53% female and 47% male.

Within the top and middle level operational roles (predominantly found in grades L to O), the gender split was 52% female and 48% male. However, women dominated the lowest level support roles (grades P to R) representing 70% of the workforce in that category.

Male employees dominated the higher wage worker ranges, where 95% of employees at grades GFF to GDD were male (which tended to relate to roles in the specialist trades). The lower wage worker ranges reflected a mover even spread, where 54% of employees at grades GCC - GCC were female and 46% male.

The two bar charts above show the percentage of salary grades that were occupied by Caymanian and non-Caymanian employees on 30th June 2013. When looking at the Civil Service as a whole, Caymanian employees made up 72.6% of the workforce.

At the most senior executive level, grades B and above, 63% of employees within the service were Caymanians. Relevant positions here included Puisine Judges, the Deputy Governor, Attorney General, Chief Justice and the Financial Secretary.

For other organisation executives (predominantly falling within grades C to G), Caymanians constituted 71% of employees in these roles, slightly below the average of the service as a whole. Positions within grades C to G included Chief & Deputy Chief Officers, Heads & Deputy Heads of Departments,

Within the middle/junior management and specialist technical roles (predominantly found in grades H to K), Caymanians were slightly under-represented at 66%. Within the top and middle level operational roles (predominantly found in grades L to O), Caymanians also represented 66% and Caymanians were over-represented compared to the Civil Service average in the lower salary range (P-R) at 90%. The majority (85%) of the wage worker range (GAA-GFF) were Caymanian on 30th June 2013.

This pattern may be explained, in part, by Ministries and Portfolios being less likely to recruit overseas for more junior roles within the Civil Service. Non-Caymanians tended to hold a higher proportion of posts in the mid-salary range, which tended to be the specialist roles - where local talent may not have been available.

Personnel Regulations (2012 Revision) state that an employees' wages or salary should be paid on a monthly basis or in exceptional circumstances on a bi-weekly basis. When the Public Service Management Law and associated Regulations came into effect in January 2007, the majority of contractual differences between salaried staff and wage workers were resolved.

The 20 Departments listed to the left, employed Civil Servants on wage worker terms and conditions as at 30th June 2013. Environmental Health, District Administration, Public Works, Children and Family Services, and the Mosquito Research Control Unit (MRCU) had over half of their staff on wage worker conditions.

During 2012/13, of the 363 new appointments to the Civil Service, 28% were appointed on wage worker contracts.

Personnel Regulations (2012 Revision) outline the terms of employment for employees and determines that the tenure for Caymanians should be "openended" up to their 60th birthday - unless the position/post undertaken has a finite life, or the individual is over retirement age, or in other "exceptional circumstances". Non-Caymanian employees should have a fixed-term employment agreement of no longer than 3 years, whilst any staff member over retirement age should have an employment agreement that is of a fixed-term of no longer than 2 years.

The pie chart above shows the proportion of employees that held open-ended or fixed-term employment agreements as at 30th June 2013. Sixty-six per cent (66%) of the Civil Service were Caymanian employees on open-ended employment agreements; 27% were non-Caymanians on fixed-term employment agreements and 7% were Caymanians on fixed-term employment agreements. In the pie-chart, the latter category has been split to show those Caymanian employees who were over 60 and holding 'compulsory' fixed term employment agreements (4%), and those with standard fixed term employment agreements (3%).

During the last fiscal year there has been a very slight decrease in both the number/percentage of Caymanians placed on fixed term contracts, with the numbers of Caymanians employed on open-ended contracts slightly increasing.

The full-time annual remuneration levels for the Civil Service on the 30th June 2013 ranged from $17,394 to $160,020 (excluding the Chief Justice, His Excellency the Governor and Puisne Judges). The graph shows that the majority of the Civil Service were paid at the lower end of this salary range. The largest group (29%) of Civil Servants earned in the $30,000 to $39,999 salary range, with 76% of the Service earning under $50,000 per year.

The provision of medical benefits and pension, without employee contribution, should be noted when making comparisons on overall remuneration packages for Civil Servants with external organisations.

The Cayman Islands Government salary grades are split into salary points. Each grade contains between 5 and 13 individual points, however automatic annual increments have been frozen within the Civil Service since 2002.

The current Public Service Management Law (2011 Revision) and Personnel Regulations (2012 Revision) delegate authority to Appointing Officers to determine the point placement of individuals within a grade. A range of factors are considered, including experience and qualifications.

The table and graph above summarise the position of employees within the point scales for the Civil Service as at 30th June 2013. 73% of the Service were on a point placement that was less than the mid-point of the range, with 31% of Civil Servants on the lowest point on their grade. Some 3% of the service were on the highest point of the grade, and a further 3% had an individual salary that was outside of the grade structure (the same percentages as 30th June 2012).

Of the new appointments to the Service during 2012/13, 170 of all appointments (47%) were made to point 1 of the salary grade, while 80 % of all appointments were made to points 4 and below of the salary grade.

Caymanians constituted 66% of all new recruitments/appointments to the Civil Service during the fiscal year 2012/13 across a wide range of roles and grades.

During 2012/13, the highest number of new recruitments/appointments to the Civil Service of non-Caymanians were to salaried positions in grades L and K. These were primarily in the areas of teaching and police roles. The temporary appointment of approximately 43 Caymanian student interns formally employed during the vacation periods of 2012/13 to gain vital work experience, contributed to the above average appointment of Caymanians to the lower salary ranges.

It should be noted however, that the above details do not form the full picture of attraction, retention and promotion of Caymanians within the Civil Service, as these figures do not take into account existing civil servants who have been appointed to new roles within Government.

Please note that the number of recruitments/appointments do not include the employment agreement /contract renewals of existing employees.

Turnover Rate by Caymanian/Non-Caymanian

*Based on the average number of employees at the end of each quarter for 2012/13

During 2012/13, the overall turnover rate for the Civil Service was 11.6%. This was calculated by the number of Civil Service leavers in 2012/13 (421) divided by the average number of employees during that fiscal year (3616.5), multiplied by 100. This represents a small increase in turnover when compared to last year's turnover of 11.1%. The turnover rate was lower for Caymanian (11%) than non-Caymanians (13.3%) employees. The turnover figures by Department are displayed in the table above. Those Departments experiencing more than double the average turnover rate within the Civil Service are identified above in red text. Where turnover exceeded 100% (the Office of the Premier and the Elections Office), this demonstrates that there were more leavers throughout the year, than the average number of people employed. Recognizably low turnovers are identified by blue text.

Leavers by Length of Service

The most common reason employees left the Civil Service during the fiscal year 2012/13 was a result of reaching the end of their employment agreement - this accounted for 45% of total leavers. This was a lower percentage than in 2011/12, where 53% of leavers were the result of reaching the end of their employment agreements. Caymanians accounted for the highest percentage of leavers through end of contract (51% as compared to 32% of non-Caymanians), however this included (contracted) student intern leavers throughout the year, and those employed on fixed-term employment agreements.

Where the reason provided for leaving was an employee decision not to renew an employment agreement (Non-Renewal of contract), this accounted for 8% of total leavers (as compared to 6% in 2011/12). Resignations represented a further 33% of leavers from the service in 2012/13, with a total of 76 Caymanians and 62 non-Caymanians resigning. The number of retirements from the service was slightly higher in 2012/13 than in 2011/12, with 48 employees retiring from the service, as opposed to 42 the previous year.

The majority of leavers in 2012/13 had served less that 1 years service with Government (46%), followed by those with 5-9 years service (14%). The proportion of Caymanians leaving during their first year was 52%, as compared to 33% of non-Caymanians. It should be noted however, that a number of young Caymanian student interns (estimated 41 in total) left short term contracted vacation period jobs in 2012/13, and these accounted for 27% of the Caymanian leavers with less than a years' service.

During 2012/13, the highest categories of staff turnover were from Administrative Personnel roles (21.5%), followed by roles classified as Support Personnel (20.5%). The lowest category of staff turnover was First Line Management (zero turnover).

The turnover rate for the combined Uniform Divisions was 5.4% - which was below the overall 11.6% turnover rate for the Civil Service as a whole. The specialism within uniformed roles, together with the difficulty of finding comparable employment within the private sector, may have contributed to this low turnover rate. Comparisons within the Uniform Divisions show that the Prison service experienced the lowest turnover with only 5 uniformed leavers in the 2012/13 fiscal year (4.5%).

The turnover rate for teaching staff was well over the rate for the Civil Service as a whole, at a rate of 18.2%. However, it should be noted that out of the 80 leavers from teaching roles, 27 were Supply Teachers employed on one of more short term employment agreements during 2012/13.
