OF THE CAYMAN ISLANDS

PARLIAMENTARY QUESTION NO. 28

Answered on 1 October 2026

Second Meeting 2026-2027 Session – Second Sitting

PARLIAMENTARY QUESTION ASKED BY

HON. KENNETH V. BRYAN
DEPUTY LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION, ELECTED MEMBER FOR THE CONSTITUENCY OF GEORGE TOWN CENTRAL

TO

HON. MICHAEL MYLES
MINISTER CAYMANIAN EMPLOYMENT & IMMIGRATION

QUESTION:

Can the Honourable Minister say if the Permanent Residency Points System reform has been completed and when he intends to bring it to Parliament for approval?

ANSWER:

The work to reform the Permanent Residency Points System is currently ongoing.

Research and analysis have been undertaken to identify potential approaches to updating the framework, and the leading options are currently being tested and assessed to determine their suitability.

No final framework has yet been agreed. Once this work has been completed and the preferred approach has been finalised, the Government will determine the appropriate next steps, including the engagement of stakeholders and the overall timeline for bringing any necessary legislative changes to Parliament for consideration and approval.

Before the end of this year, we plan to undertake stakeholder consultations on the proposed reform. We anticipate that the remaining aspects of this reform will be completed during the first half of 2027.
