PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE**

Standing Public Accounts Committee to Examine Government's Approach to Improving Access to Affordable Housing

GEORGE TOWN, 29th October 2026

The Standing Public Accounts Committee (PAC) will hold public hearings on Wednesday, 4th November and Thursday, 5th November 2026, beginning at 10:00 a.m. on each day, to examine the Auditor General's Report, "The Government's Approach to Improving Access to Affordable Housing."

The report examines the Government's approach to improving access to affordable housing, including the strategic direction and oversight of affordable housing initiatives, the value for money of Government housing programmes, and oversight of the rental market.

During the two-day hearing, the Committee will hear from relevant public officials as it examines the Auditor General's report findings and seeks further information on the Government's efforts to improve access to affordable housing across the Cayman Islands.

The public hearing is part of the PAC's role in examining the Auditor General's reports and strengthening accountability for the use of public resources. During the hearing, the Committee will have an opportunity to seek clarification on matters raised in the report, consider actions being taken in response to its findings and examine efforts to improve the effectiveness and value for money of the Government's approach to affordable housing.

The current Members of the Public Accounts Committee are:

- Mr. Roy McTaggart, JP, MP: Chair
- Hon. G. Wayne Panton, JP, MP: Member
- Hon. Kenneth Bryan, JP, MP: Member
- Mr. Christopher Saunders, MP: Member
- Mr. A. Royston Tatum, Cert. Hon., MP: Member
- Mrs. Julie Hunter, JP, MP: Member

The public can watch the proceedings live at the House of Parliament in George Town after signing in with security personnel. Proper business attire is required to sit in the Public Gallery.
